9:30 am – 9:45 am Welcome & Overview

- Mrs. Christy Coleman, Director, LDC Gas Forums

9:45 am – 11:15 am New Projects in the Southeast

Back on track in 2010: New Projects and new excitement about Natural Gas! Hear ye, Hear Ye, there is revitalized hope for 2010 and the SE Region! Hear how the latest shale developments and their related infrastructure will impact natural gas throughout the Southeast.

MODERATOR: Mr. Pat Strange, Managing Director, J.P. Morgan

- Mr. Michael Varagona, Vice President, El Paso - Southern Natural Gas Co.
- Mr. Jim Cisarik, SR VP Business Development Enterprise Products Operating, Enterprise Products
- Mr. Jeff Ballew, President & CEO, Cardinal Gas Storage Partners LLC

11:30 am Depart for Afternoon Activities
(Golf, Spa, Tour)

Monday Activities

Golf at Bear's Best...The Best Course in Atlanta.

Play at one of the only two golf courses in the world with 18 of Jack Nicklaus's most memorable golf holes. In one setting, Nicklaus reproduced holes such as Castle Pines and Muirfield Village, which are nationally and/or internationally ranked. Experience every amenity possible, including professionally trained forecaddies to assist you with strategy and insight on how to best play the course. Soak in the beauty of the course and enjoy the game while letting the forecaddie mark your ball, replace your divot and maintain your equipment.

...Or Relax at Spa Sydell. If you aren't into golf, or just want an afternoon to be spoiled and pampered, join us at Spa Sydell, the premier dayspa in Atlanta. Choose your method of relaxation; massage, facial and more. Enjoy an after noon of rest and relaxation as you network with your peers from the LDC Gas Forum.

...Or choose our Atlanta tour.

After a great lunch at Fogo de Chão, an authentic Brazilian steakhouse offering 15 cuts of grilled meats with continuous tableside service, spend the afternoon networking with your peers while walking the 33 acres of the Atlanta History Center, including two historic houses, the Centennial Olympic Games Museum, historic gardens and much more.

Tuesday, April 13, 2010

7:30 am – 9:00 am Networking with the Industry:
Registration & Continental
Breakfast

9:00 am – 9:15 am Welcome & Overview

- Mrs. Christy Coleman, Director, LDC Gas Forums

9:15 am – 10:15 am Carbon Updates

Carbon issues run amuck – or not! What is next and what is the next step for companies regarding Climate Change Initiatives? What seemed certain in 2009 has suddenly been put on indefinite hold in 2010. What will happen on a state and regional level if the Federal remains in a quagmire? Is the sky really falling ~ the latest and greatest from our GHG Panel will yield insight and answers.

MODERATOR: Mr. Randy Rischard, Director of Energy News & Markets, SNL Financial LC

- Mr. Graeme Martin, Manager of Business Development, Environmental Products, Shell Energy North America
- Mr. Craig Breslau, Managing Director, Commodities Trading Desk, Societe Generale
- Mr. John Bremner, Vice President, Marketer Services and Business Development – Storage, Spectra

10:15 am – 10:45 am Break

10:45 am – 12:00 pm Financial Outlook –
What's Next?

We “weathered the storm” in 2009, but, is it over? What is next for the financial system/credit marketplace and those who have to “wade” through the remnants of the storm? How can companies survive and thrive after the storm? What is the current state of the credit markets, and which financial tools are back on the table? 2010 is looking brighter – but, it is bright enough to wear shades?

MODERATOR: Mr. Doug Schantz, President of Sequent Energy Management, Sequent Energy Management

- Mr. David Tucker, VP - National Accounts, Atmos Energy Marketing
- Mr. Paul Corby, Senior Vice President, Planalytics Inc.
- Mr. Manal El-Ramly, Director of Eastern Office, ZE Power Group

12:00 noon – 1:45 pm Luncheon & Keynote Address
Energizing the Future

Mr. Craig Donohue, Chief Executive Officer of CME Group, will discuss key developments that have built today's futures industry – including the energy trading marketplace – and give his perspective on the current regulatory climate as it relates to these and other markets. He also will discuss new global opportunities made possible by the trading technologies that make markets work faster and more efficiently, and highlight new products that help customers manage their physical natural gas risk.

- Mr. Craig Donohue, Chief Executive Officer, CME Group

1:45 pm – 3:00 pm Using Storage to Solve
Your Problems

Baby it's cold outside and that Shale is HOT! There are various key aspects that could affect the 2010 Storage Supply, and this is the session where you will learn the real deal on how storage is working in the Southeast. Can infrastructure keep up with the pace of development and is storage the missing piece of the puzzle?

MODERATOR: Will Hussey, Sr. Vice President, Origination, ConocoPhillips Gas & Power

- Dr. Eduardo Roman-Gil, PhD, Derivatives Specialist, Financial Engineering Associates (MSCI Barra)
- Ms. Kay Atchison, Director, Marketing, Enstor
- Mr. Paul Tate, Director, Enterprise Products
- Mr. Robert Levin, Managing Director of Energy and Metals Product Development, CME Group

3:00 pm – 3:30 pm Break

3:30 pm – 4:45 pm Supply and Demand - What is the Balance for 2010?

It is a balancing act for sure, but who or what is on either side? What political issues will tip the scales? What environmental issues are lurking? What about LNG and those Shale Plays? How will the current strategies on long term contracts and hedging affect the pace of supply? There is much to uncover and discover with one of the LDC Gas Forums most important and well attended sessions!

MODERATOR: Mr. Miles Weigel, Senior Vice President, Argus

- Mr. Adam Sieminski, Chief Energy Economist, Deutsche Bank
- Mr. Jim Duncan, Director, Market Research, ConocoPhillips
- Mr. Mark Stultz, Vice President, Policy & US Regulatory Affairs, BP Energy Company

4:45 pm – 6:45 pm Corporate Sponsor Reception

Wednesday, April 14, 2010

7:30 am – 8:30 am APGA Member Breakfast

8:00 am – 9:15 am Networking with the Industry: Registration & Continental Breakfast

9:15 am – 9:30 am Welcome & Overview

- Mrs. Christy Coleman, Director, LDC Gas Forums

9:30 am – 10:30 am Keynote
Regulatory Update: The LDC Perspective

- Mr. Bert Kalisch, President & CEO, American Public Gas Association

With comprehensive climate change legislation looking less likely, what might a less ambitious energy bill include? While the Regulatory Roller Coaster in 2009 was full of turns, what can we expect in 2010 while moving towards the mid-term election? Will the trading limits and other proposed legislation surrounding the commodity markets come to pass? How will trading, efficiency standards, financial & climate reforms affect the natural gas markets?

10:30 am – 11:00 am - Break

11:00 am – 12:00 pm – Gas Buyers Forum

Our gas buyer panelists will give you solid and valuable insight into what is currently working, what they have learned from the recent high volatility and what they will do differently next time.

- How is the price of gas affecting usage?
- Long Term Contracts – today vs. yesterday?
- Regulatory concerns.
- How will LNG, shale or pipeline capacity affect buying patterns?
- How is storage being utilized and will this change with today's pricing?

MODERATOR: Mr. Scott Harwell, Director, Marketing, Tenaska Marketing Ventures

PANELISTS:

- Mr. Bill Cummings, Energy Supply Leader, Kimberly-Clark Corporation
- Mr. Daniel P. Lopez, Group Manager, PepsiCo Energy & Utilities Group
